

March 25, 2010

Smith County Community Foundation accepting grant funding applications

The Smith County Community Foundation is reminding all non-profit entities that they are accepting applications for grant funds.

The Foundation offers the grant program as part of the Foundation's efforts to fulfill its primary mission - to improve the quality of life of the local community.

The Foundation will accept applications until April 20, 2010.

The Foundation will consider applications from non-profit organizations, individuals and groups of individuals. Grants are available to projects that fall within the Smith County area, which include the communities of Smith Center, Kensington, Gaylord, Lebanon, Athol and Cedar. Projects must be completed in a 12 month time frame from the grant award.

•Continued on page 8

•Grant

For-profit organizations will not be considered as grant recipients, and applications will not be accepted from outside Smith County.

Applications are available online at www.smithcounty-communityfoundation.org or from any board member. Applications are also available at the Smith Center Chamber of

Continued from Page 1

Commerce Office, and at the banks in Kensington, Gaylord and Lebanon.

For more information, contact Don Wiens at (785) 476-3236, Joan Nech at (785) 476-2473, Kim Phelps at (785)282-6401 or any of the following board members: Demetre Evangelidis, Gary Frieling, Randy Merritt, Jim Schlatter, John Terrell, Barb Lehmann or John Zabel.